

I am a current listener to K-Love and am concerned that new regulations would endanger this station. Please consider letting current continue with their license. Beginning Nov. 1 st the northwest Chicago area will only have K-Love for contemporary Christian music. If K-Love had to be removed here it would be a big loss for fans of this music, since we would no longer have this music available on the radio.